

The Book of Jonah

(page 861)

Pastor Dave Fisher

July 17, 2016

I. God's will is Revealed [Jonah 1:1-2]

- God does not keep His will a secret, it is just easier to treat it as such

I. God's will is Revealed [Jonah 1:1-2]

I. God's will is Revealed [Jonah 1:1-2]

- God does not keep His will a secret, it is just easier to treat it as such
- We often want to know His will, only as it relates to our will

II. God's will is Righteous

II. God's will is Righteous

- It warrants discipline when repentance to Him is absent

II. God's will is Righteous

- It warrants discipline when repentance to Him is absent
- It is not based upon man's sin (our will)

II. God's will is Righteous

- a. It warrants discipline when repentance to Him is absent
- b. It is not based upon man's sin (our will)
- c. It is all about bringing glory to His name

III. God's Will is Redemptive

III. God's Will is Redemptive

- He is NOT finished with you (Philippians 1:6)

III. God's Will is Redemptive

- He is NOT finished with you (Philippians 1:6)
- Even through our failures God can succeed

