Isaiah 6:1-5

“In the year that King Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and the train of his robe filled the temple. Above him stood the seraphim. Each had six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. And one called to another and said: “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory!” And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. And I said: “Woe is me! For I am lost; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!”

The image is a digital composition. The word "God" is written in a white, thick, hand-drawn or stencil-like font. The letter "o" is replaced by a circular nebula with a bright blue center and orange-red outer rings. The background is a dark, star-filled space with a brownish dust cloud. The entire image is framed by a thin brown border.
