THE HOLY SPIRIT

“And when Jesus was baptized,
immediately he went up from the water,
and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on him; and behold, a voice from heaven said, “This is my beloved Son,
with whom I am well pleased.”

(Matthew 3:16-17)

“I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.” (John 16:12-15)

OBSERVATIONS/TAKEAWAYS:

1) We are in a battle

A serene sunset scene over a body of water. In the foreground, a small, light-colored wooden boat is moored, its reflection visible in the calm water. The sky is a mix of soft pinks, purples, and blues, with scattered clouds. In the distance, a small structure, possibly a lighthouse or a small building, is visible on the horizon. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

There is an eagle in me that wants to soar, and there is a hippopotamus in me that wants to wallow in the mud.

Carl Sandburg

quotefancy

“We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin.” (Romans 6:6-7)
