You can choose your friends but you can't choose your family..

Robert Obren: “Who can ever forget Winston Churchill's immortal words: ‘We shall fight on the beaches, we shall fight on the landing grounds, we shall fight in the fields and in the streets, we shall fight in the hills.’ It sounds exactly like our family vacation.”

We are created for community, fashioned for fellowship, and formed for a family, and none of us can fulfill God's purposes by

- There is a difference between someone else's "burden" and our "load"

John Stott: “There is one burden that we cannot share . . . . and that is our responsibility to God on the day of judgment. On that day you cannot carry my pack and I cannot carry yours.”
