THE MAKING OF CHRIST FOLLOWERS

The background of the slide is a photograph of the Sea of Galilee. The water is a calm, light blue-grey color, reflecting the sky. In the distance, there are rolling hills and mountains under a soft, hazy sky. The foreground shows a dark, rocky shoreline. A dark blue, rounded rectangular text box is superimposed over the center of the image, containing the title and the main text.

Mark 1:16-18 (ESV)

Passing alongside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you become fishers of men." And immediately they left their nets and followed him.

The background of the slide is a photograph of a coastal scene. In the foreground, there's a dark, calm body of water. In the middle ground, a coastline with brown, hilly terrain is visible. The sky is a pale, hazy blue. The overall tone is somewhat muted and atmospheric.

Mark 1:19-20 (ESV)

And going on a little farther, he saw James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, who were in their boat mending the nets. And immediately he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants and followed him.

The Response

The background is a landscape photograph showing a desert scene with mountains and a road. A dark blue rounded rectangle is overlaid on the image, containing the text. The text is white and reads:

Therefore...

To follow Jesus will be costly but it is empowered by the work of Jesus in our lives.
