

Child Dedication Day Sunday, March 28 | 9:45am

Sunday, March 28 has been designated as Child Dedication Day at BCC. This is an opportunity for parents to publicly declare they want to raise their child to know Jesus in a personal relationship, to follow Jesus throughout their life. To do so publicly is asking their church family to help them, encourage them in this wonderful, yet sometimes overwhelming responsibility.

Church family will be asked to pray for these families and for the children; to be their Sunday school teachers & youth sponsors; to encourage & support these families in their walk with Jesus Christ.

Parents please sign-up & fill out the information sheet in the Fellowship Hall by March 7th if you wish to participate in Child Dedication Day. You will be asked to share a photo of the child alone & a family photo; a letter written from the parents to the child to be read at the dedication; a Scripture verse you've chosen for your child; and the child's name & birthdate. For questions or additional information, please see Rachael Moore.

Dear Church Family.

We would like to thank you all for the prayers, cards, calls, & food that we received while my dad, Tom Ambler, was in the hospital & then with his passing. Even though our prayers weren't answered the way we wanted, we have peace knowing that God has a plan, is in control, & will see us through the coming days.

-Donna & Steve Kloefer & family
