

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With your Kids

Gobble Gobble Gratitude Lesson

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: GOBBLE GOBBLE GRATITUDE

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

Turkeys are constantly talking. "Gobble, gobble, gobble," but they never say thank you. They just keep saying "gobble, gobble, gobble" and looking for more. When we realize all that Jesus has done for us and all the things we have to be thankful for, we need to remember to praise him and thank him. Luke 17:11-19, Jesus Heals 10 Lepers

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Be intentional about being thankful this week. Start today, and continue through Thanksgiving and the weekend after. Make sure thanks is a part of your Thanksgiving.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- How many lepers did Jesus heal?
- Why do you think only one man came back to say thanks?
- Why is it important to be thankful?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"Give thanks to the Lord, because he is good. His faithful love continues forever." 1 Chronicles 16:34 (NirV)

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

Thankfulness should be a daily habit, not an annual tradition. Take some time each day this week to tell God why you are thankful, and establish a habit for you and your children that will last all year round.
