

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With your Kids

Slimed Lesson 1

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: SELFISH SLIME

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

In Jacob and Esau's culture, the "birthright" was a very important privilege, but Esau treated it like it was nothing – which would lead to big troubles down the road. When we are selfish, and think only about ourselves, it can lead to a slimy situation. Genesis 25:21-34, Esau Sells His Birthright

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

What are some ways you as a family can think of each other first and not be selfish?

What are some things you can do daily or weekly to put your family first and keep your relationships from getting "slimy?"

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- What selfish decision did Esau make?
- How did Esau's actions create a slimy situation?
- What can we do to remind ourselves not to be selfish?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"But I call out to God. And the Lord saves me." Psalm 55:16 (NIRV)

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

Jacob and Esau were torn apart by a rash, selfish decision. This week pray that you can model a selfless attitude to your kids and teach them to put God and others ahead of their own selfish desires. Ask God to help your kids to be thoughtful and humble.
