

Overview

Look at the Book is a new online method of teaching the Bible. It's an ongoing series of 8–12 minute videos in which the camera is on the text, not the teacher. You will hear John Piper's voice and watch his pen underline, circle, make connections, and scribble notes—all to help you learn to read God's word for yourself. His goal is to help you not only see what he sees, but where he sees it and how he found it. It links directly to Piper's sermons and writings, and you can follow along with your original language and translated versions of the Bible.
