For all that is in the world -
the lust of the flesh,
the lust of the eyes,
and the pride of life -
is not of the Father
but is of the world.

1 John 2:16

When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise, she took from its fruit and ate and she gave also to her husband who was

“God will never give
you more than you
can handle!”

~~“God will never give
you more than you
can handle!”~~

No temptation has seized you except what is common to man.

And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear.

But when you are tempted, he will provide a way out so that you can stand up under it.

1 Corinthians 10:13 NIV

You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.

1 John 4:4

The image is a landscape photograph of a mountain range. In the foreground, a dark, rocky ridge slopes upwards from the bottom right towards the center. In the middle ground, a mountain peak is visible, topped with a small, dark cross. The background consists of several layers of hazy, blue-toned mountain ranges, creating a sense of depth. The sky is filled with soft, warm light from the setting or rising sun, with colors ranging from pale yellow to deep orange and red near the horizon. A white rectangular box with a thin border is centered in the upper half of the image, containing the text "IT IS WRITTEN" in white, uppercase, sans-serif font.
