Church Leadership Connection

The Call System for the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

Youth programs, Bible studies and home visitations. This is lived out by the minister with Sunday School programs and church volunteers.

How do you feel called to reach out to address the emerging needs of your community or constituency:

We are a small rural church with an average attendance of thirty- five people a week. We are looking for someone part time or full time to pastor our congregation. Our church is very active with monthly meals for young at heart this is a service provided by deacons a meal is offered to seniors within the area. There is a board of trustees that handle building and lawn needs, the session holds monthly meetings to attend to church business. We hold special services for Christmas and Ash Wednesday. We have a monthly communion. We believe the bible is the true word of God. We currently have an adult Sunday school and a youth program when the youth are available. We are looking for a pastor to lead us when times are tough and has the ability to listen and come to a resolution with love and patience. Our average age in the congregation is 60 plus, we would like to put a program in place that would inspire the youth of our community. We work in conjunction with the Presbytery of Washington county, and attend their monthly meetings. We are looking for someone to visit shut-ins and hospital visitation. Session members do monthly shut-in communions. We are looking for someone whom will lead us in a healthy loving way and show how we connect who we are as people to who we are as Christians. We are always looking into the future to sustain a place of worship for the next generation .
