

God in Fullness

Fall 2020 (in lieu of Disciple-Makers)

We are unwavering in our commitment to teach, encourage, and champion our clarion call from scripture of making disciples. Disciple-makers is designed to help equip and encourage a follower of Christ to fulfill that responsibility, making disciples. When we began this course in 2019, we could have never anticipated a worldwide pandemic like COVID-19 and its long-term effects on gathering. Though it has impacted “how” we do things, it can never change “why” we do them nor stop us from fulfilling the Scriptures mandate of making disciples. So for the fall of 2020, we will structure things a little differently to make the best use of our current situation. We prefer regular in-person gatherings to learn essential truths, discuss and practice reading scriptures, and praying together. Though that’s our preference, wisdom tells us to be a bit more cautious for a little while longer. So, for the fall of 2020, Disciple-makers will consist of a lecture series exploring the attributes of God. There will be seven lectures, every other week, in the series with time for questions at the end. They will be on zoom, and each address will have a different presenter. We are praying this series of lectures will push us towards greater intimacy with the Lord and greater depths of faith in Him. We also are praying it will draw us closer together as we draw closer to God. On the off weeks, we will have corporate prayer (see next page).

The highest science, the loftiest speculation, the mightiest philosophy, which can ever engage the attention of a child of God, is the name, the nature, the person, the work, the doings, and the existence of the great God...Nothing will so enlarge the intellect, nothing so magnify the whole soul of man, as a devout, earnest, continued investigation of the great subject of Deity...I know nothing which can so comfort the soul; so calm the swelling billows of sorrow and grief; so speak peace to the winds of trial, as a devout musing upon the subject of the Godhead.

-Charles Spurgeon

Let Us Pray

Fall 2020 (in lieu of Disciple-Makers)

Alongside the lecture series, we will spend time in focused prayer. These prayer gatherings will be in-person with a zoom option. Starting, we will put the same precautions in place as our Sunday Gathering. Each week will be focused on particular issues covering our life together, the community, and gospel work across the world. We keep this under the heading of Disciple-makers because prayer is essential in us becoming disciples, being disciples, and making disciples.
