PRAYER

We, here at Prince of Peace, have been talking a lot about prayer over the past year, and we have been doing more praying. Our "Prayer Group" has been handing out monthly prayer reminders for us and hopefully these little reminders have been helpful in your prayer life.

In January we started a Meditative Prayer time twice a week, at noon on Wednesday and 6:15 on Thursday evenings. You ask: what happens during this time of intentional quiet contemplation? It begins as your pastor chants the Prayer of the Day. Then there is a time of silent deep breathing for five to ten minutes followed by, the canting of a Psalm. This is followed by time for silent or verbal prayers either by your pastor or by those who are present. We close by praying together the Lord's Prayer.

Even as a pastor, I admit that my prayer times can be lacking. I get busy, so taking time to be intentional about my prayer time doesn't always happen. I confess this structured time of Meditative Prayer has been good for me. One thing I have found very interesting about this time is that as I begin the time of silence, as I take that first deep breath a word or phrase comes to me. This experience has been different each time and each time it seems to be just right for that day and time.

I look forward to many more times of silence and prayer. Being intentional about taking time during the busy day to stop and pray is to say thank you God, help me God, protect your people God, let healing happen God and may your peace come among us God.

Come and join in some time. You might just feel the love of God surround you in the silence.

Working With You in Christ,

Pastor Ida

Minor-league baseball announcer Artie Decker (Billy Crystal) and his wife, Diane (Bette Midler), get to see their only child, Alice (Marisa Tomei), very seldom. To their surprise, Alice and her husband (Tom Everett Scott) ask them to watch their children so they can embark on a trip for work. It promises to be a fun time for all, until the three young ones turn out to be quite a handful for this old-fashioned couple. Artie and Diane may need to bend the rules to make everyone happy in the end.

Alas! And Did My Savior Bleed

Alas! And Did My Savior Bleed is based on Galatians 6:14. "But God forbid that I should boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ." This hymn is now considered the finest hymn ever written in the English language.

It was written by Isaac Watts (1674-1748). He wrote this hymn in 1707 at the age of 23. After graduation from university, he tutored the children of a wealthy family of Dissenters. During this time he joined Mark Lane Independent Chapel. Soon he was asked to be a teacher in the church, and in 1698, he was hired as associate pastor. There, on his 24th birthday, he preached his first sermon. In 1702, he became Senior Pastor, a position he retained the rest of his life. It is said he was a brilliant Bible student and his sermons brought the church to life

This hymn, by Isaac Watts, has touched the hearts of millions throughout the centuries. In 1851, a 31 year old blind women heard this hymn at a revival service at John Street Methodist Church in New York City. "After a prayer was offered," she recalled, "they began to sing the grand old consecration hymn, 'Alas! And Did My Savior Bleed' and when they reached the third line of the fifth stanza, 'Here, Lord, I give myself away', My very soul was flooded with celestial light." That woman was Fanny Crosby who went on to become the greatest writer of gospel songs in the past century. We never know how deeply our lives will touch the lives of others.

Taking † Faith Home

Each week there will be a take home insert "Taking†Faith Home" with daily bible readings, scripture verse for the week, prayers, blessing and more. Take yours home each week.

Thank you for your generous support over the past year. It is because of donors like you, that we are able to help those in need. We are so blessed to have the support of you and the church and we look forward to your continued support in 2020.

Thank You,
Wanda Lanier,
President and CEO
