Pastor's COLUMN

By Rev. Mark Eldal

Psalm twenty-seven is a beautiful psalm and part of it reads, "One thing I ask of the Lord, this is what I seek, that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life."

This is a psalm of David in which he expresses his great desire to spend time with God and enjoy his company. It is a reminder of why David was called "a man after God's own heart," and it can be a reminder of the close fellowship we can have with God as we live in a relationship with him.

An old hymn has the words, "My God and I go through the fields together, we walk and talk as good friends should and do." We can indeed walk with God, and as we do so we can bring him our concerns and know he loves us and is available to help us with whatever burden we might be experiencing. He can be the friend that stays closer than a brother.

As we trust in Jesus, may this winter season be an opportunity to freshly seek a close relationship with God, enjoy his fellowship, and let him be that friend which stays closer than a brother in our lives.

God bless,
Pastor Mark

Women Of the Word

I am praying that the start of 2021 finds you healthy. It has been some time since the last communication regarding our WOW group. With great faith in the COVID-19 vaccines and their increased administration, I am encouraged that we will soon be able to resume our meetings.

With that said, the Executive Committee has made the careful decision to continue the suspension of the meetings. The current CDC recommendations encourage the use of masks and social distancing of at least 6 feet. These requirements would make it more difficult to hear, which is already a concern that many members share without them. We could open the meetings to those who would choose to participate with these measures in place. However, as the curriculum is shared amongst all members, this would exclude several from participating.

As most of you have already heard, Pastor Mark's father, Gerald Lee Eldal, passed away in Minnesota on January 3, 2021. The executive committee unanimously elected to send a memorial. Pastor and Jacque were given a sympathy card with a monetary donation to be directed to the place of their choosing.

Again, we will continue to monitor the situation and make our decisions based on the health and safety of our members and their families. We thank you for your continued patience and understanding.

Co-Coordinator

Dorcas Society
Postponed until further notice
