

CHOIR BEATITUDES

“Attitudes that Bring Harmony to Worship”

- BLESSED are those who are on time for service, for they shall set the tone for worship.
- BLESSED are those who practice the music, for their preparation shall bring peace to the rehearsal.
- BLESSED are the joyful singers, for their smiles shall lift the hearts of the congregation.
- BLESSED are the faithful attendees, for their consistency shall strengthen the choir’s harmony.
- BLESSED are those who blend their voices, for they shall make a joyful noise as one.
- BLESSED are the humble musicians, for they know the song is not about them, but about HIM.
- BLESSED are those who listen as much as they sing, for they shall find unity in the Spirit.
- BLESSED are the encouragers in rehearsal, for they shall keep harmony alive when notes falter.
- BLESSED are those who pray before they sing, for their voices shall carry the anointing of the Lord.
- BLESSED are the choirs that minister with excellence and love, for they shall lead others into the presence of God.

“Serve the Lord with gladness, come before His presence with singing”

~ Psalm 100:2

When we sing together, we do more than make music – we build unity, inspire faith, and invite the Spirit of God to dwell among His people.
