

Today we welcomed Bryan Hutson as our special music and worship leader. Unfortunately, Yvonne was under the weather and not able to come with him.

Bryan Hutson is an accomplished vocalist and performer known throughout the Southern Gospel music industry. He began his career in Southern Gospel Music in 1982, when he joined his family group; "The Woods Family." Some of the groups he has been part of are the Blackwood Quartet, The Kingsmen, and Soul'd out.

Yvonne was born in Richmond, VA. She was raised as a "PK" (Preacher's Kid) in southern West Virginia. She began our career in Retail as a Store Manager for Walmart, B Moss, Belk, Kohls and Banana Republic. Yvonne is also an accomplished songwriter and speaker.

Their ministry "Rescue Me Ministries" is geared toward marriage and family. Their topics include articles on integrity, fighting for your marriage, raising a blended family and character. Their blog; <http://journeywithbryanandy.wordpress.com/> is an extension of the "Rescue Me" Ministries".

In June 2014, Bryan and Yvonne (Rescue Me Ministries) began ministering at special events and began their fulltime ministry in November 2016.

Bryan and Yvonne travel and minister together as "Rescue Me Ministries." Their ministry includes music, preaching/teaching, marriage enrichment events, men's retreats and ladies' conferences. Their ongoing passion is to reach the world through music and their testimonies.

To find out more about their ministry visit their website at Rescue Me Ministries <http://www.https://www.rescuemeministries.com> or find them on Facebook.
