

WILLIAMSTOWN ASSEMBLY OF GOD

Transforming people into the image of Jesus Christ step by step.

Sunday: March 24, 2019

Communion refers to God's communication and presentation of himself to us, together with our proper response to him with joy. We say with joy because it would not be communion if God revealed himself in total wrath and we were simply terrified.

That would be true revelation and a proper response, but it would not be communion.

Communion assumes that God comes to us in love and that we respond joyfully to the beauty of his perfections and the offer of his fellowship. He may sometimes come with a rod of discipline. But even in our tears, we can rejoice in the Father's loving discipline (Hebrews 12:6-11). Communion with God may lay us in ashes or make us leap. But it never destroys our joy. It is our joy (Psalm 43:3).

SPRING by Danette Kettwich

A walk in the woods this warm spring day,
Brings me into Your presence as I walk along the way.

The warm damp breeze has me breathless as I,
Take in creation awakening right before my eyes.

The oak as its branches are raised in rigidity,
Reminds me to raise my praise to You, Your majesty.

A downy white feather floats softly to the ground,
Reminds me of all the blessings this day has found.

The ferns and the moss have awakened from their slumber.
And I am reminded of Your return as I hear the distant thunder.

A storm that is impending, the rapidly darkening skies,
Reminds me to be thankful, for every season of life.

"Because he loves me," says the LORD, "I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name." He will call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honor him.

Psalms 91:14-15 (NIV)

Respect people who find time for you in their busy schedule... But Love the people who never look at their schedule when you need them.
