At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion in what was known as the Italian Regiment. He and all his family were devout and God-fearing; he gave generously to those in need and prayed to God regularly. One day at about three in the afternoon he had a vision. He distinctly saw an angel of God, who came to him and said, "Cornelius!" Cornelius stared at him in fear. "What is it, Lord?" he asked. Acts 10:1-4

For your convenience in giving to this church and the ministry of the Christian and Missionary Alliance as a whole, an offering box is in the back of the sanctuary.
