A. 2. The chief end of man is to glorify God and enjoy Him forever.

Q. 2. WHAT IS THE CHIEF END OF MAN?

- May the sacred writings make us wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus, as we trust that...
- God is glorious.
- “Glorify” does not mean make glorious. It means [to] reflect or display as glorious.
- God is our greatest joy!

So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

1 Corinthians 10:31 ESV (June 6, 2021)

You make known to me the path of life; in your presence there is the fullness of joy; at your right hand are the pleasures forevermore.

Psalms 16:11 ESV (June 13, 2021)

Delight yourself in the Lord, and He will give you the desires of your heart.

Psalms 37:4 ESV (June 20, 2021)

Whom have I in heaven but you? And there is nothing that I desire besides you. My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

Psalms 73:25-26 ESV (June 27, 2021)

Everyone who is called by name, whom I created for my glory, whom I have formed and made.

Isaiah 43:7 ESV (Memory Verse)

glorify
God &
enjoy
Him
FOREVER

What is the chief end of man? It is to glorify God and enjoy Him forever!

C.S. Lewis said, "I had never noticed that all enjoyment spontaneously overflows into praise unless (sometimes even if) shyness or the fear of boring others is deliberately brought in to check it. The world rings with praise — lovers praising their mistresses, readers their favorite poet, walkers praising the countryside, players praising their favorite game — praise of weather, wines, dishes, actors, motors, horses, colleges, countries, historical personages, children, flowers, mountains, rare stamps, rare beetles, even sometimes politicians or scholars...." He also said, "I had not noticed either that just as men spontaneously praise whatever they value, so they spontaneously urge us to join them in praising it: "Isn't she lovely? Wasn't it glorious? Don't you think that magnificent?" The Psalmists in telling everyone to praise God are doing what all men do when they speak of what they care about.

This month as a family, let us pay close attention to what we value most, which is often seen in what we praise. Let us ask the Lord always to help us find our greatest joy in what is of most value... the first and best of Beings.

PSALM 1

BIG IDEA

It is only in the truths of the Bible that we find life, growth, and hope. If you reject the Bible, you are wicked and cannot be part of the glorious kingdom of God. But if you love the Bible, God will use it to give you life, to make you more like him, and to give you strength when life gets difficult. If we want to love God, we have to love his word.

PSALM 2

BIG IDEA

Why are the nations so angry? Because they don't want God to have ultimate authority over them through His anointed king. To reject God is in the end a waste of time. He sits in heaven no matter what others think. This Psalm also points to the forever King Jesus and how many will reject him as well. Though many reject, He still has authority and we are to trust Him!

PSALM 3

BIG IDEA

Though God's anointed king will always have success (Psalm 2), it does not mean that life will be easy. Here King David is fleeing his son who wants to kill him! So he prays! The path of the godly is a path of prayer. This is exactly what King Jesus did as well, so we must give ourselves to prayer in difficult times. We can trust and pray knowing that God will respond.

PSALM 4

BIG IDEA

Joy and peace are hard to have when we are facing hurtful situations. Especially when those hurtful things are from others saying wrong things about us. King David experienced hateful lies against him. He can either defend himself or trust the Lord to expose the truth. In trusting the Lord, he is given much joy. Jesus does the same when he does not even address the lies told about him while he hangs on the cross. He knows that the truth will be clear as He endures the cross and is then raised.
