

Minister Shervetta Porter
Christian Counselor

Shervetta Porter received Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at a young age. She is a native of Memphis, TN but currently lives in Gallatin, TN. She has been married for 18 years to her husband Stacy Porter and has one son Shamar Porter. Shervetta was called into ministry at the age of 19 years old.

She has completed a Bachelor's Degree in Social Work at Tennessee State University (2000) and a Master's of Counseling at Trevecca Nazarene University (2006). She was licensed as a minister in November 2008 at Temple Baptist Church. She has ministered, preached, and presented at several churches and organizations. She is also a Licensed Professional Counselor since 2015. She currently owns a private practice called Restore Life Behavioral Health, PLLC that's located in Hendersonville and Clarksville, TN with seven employees and interns. She loves to counsel God's people using the Word of God as well as her clinical expertise as a Christian Counselor.

She enjoys and thanks God for the opportunity to help people to become equipped, healed, and receive freedom from the nuisances that plague them such as childhood issues, daily struggles, strongholds, relationship issues, demonic oppression, etc. One of her favorite scriptures is Proverbs 11:14, "Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counselors there is safety. Shervetta believes that every day is another day to do God's will and help God's people.
