Serving This Week p.4

Upcoming Events p.5

From the Pastor

We had a great first night of discipleship training last week! We had over 50 participants in the different studies and there is still time to jump in. Then our meal was shared by 60 folks as we met in the gym and continued our study in First John. Thank you to those of you who jumped into action in the kitchen to serve as needed. It reminded me of a Thanksgiving meal when everyone was doing their part! Thank you again!

We will be having our revival October 7-10 with Pastor Randy Thomas from Chattanooga, TN. As a special treat, we will also be having a children's evangelist, Dan Bellamy to visit with kids each evening as well. I hope you will mark your calendars and begin praying for this week's events.

Recently, someone asked about the importance of attending church. I thought I would share with you some answers that could be shared with others who may ask you a similar question.

- 1. We were created to worship God corporately and publicly.*
- 2. We need the support & accountability in our Christian walk.*
- 3. We need each person and their spiritual gifts.*
- 4. Our church family and friends need your testimony.*
- 5. The Bible instructs us to gather together in groups to worship.*

See you Sunday!

Bro. Tommy
