“A Lent that Makes a Difference”

My friends, the Lenten season is a present reality. Lent is a 40-day season of spiritual preparation intended to remind us of our mortality and our need for repentance in order to celebrate Easter. Lent is a time when we turn the focus away from ourselves and put the focus on God's kingdom. Lent lends itself to be a time where we engage in spiritual disciplines, such as fasting, bible reading, prayer, meditation, and service, that will stretch us, sanctify us, mold us, empower us, strengthen us, and embolden us to face a Good Friday world with an Easter faith.

Lent is an exciting time of spiritual formation for the entire body of Wesley. Let us use this great opportunity to experience a shift at our great church. The 'shift' I dream about for Wesley is that Kairos moment where members develop a 'thirst' for the Word of God and as a result Sunday School and bible study classes are packed out. The shift I dream about is when the Membership Care class leaders meet with their classes once a month for spiritual formation and fellowship. That way we maintain a connection with each other and no one feels that they are forgotten.

The shift I dream about is when we find a Christian Education Director and that person develops a year-long curriculum of spiritual education for all ages in the church. The shift I dream about is when we gather for worship on Sundays and the place is electric with the Holy Spirit. Congregants are worshipping the LORD on purpose with joy, energy, and love. No spectating. No one just sitting there looking. But everyone is engaged in some form of praise and worship. The shift I dream about would shake up the entire church and members would begin to birth new ministries that care for the spiritual, social, educational and economic needs of people. The shift I dream about would reinforce the idea that worship is everything we do for the love of God.

Finally, Lent is a time to get excited about serving God. It is not just about personal development but what we do with that personal development to make a difference in our community. Personal spiritual renewal should eventuate into public space renewal. It is a season for us to get right with God so we can make some things right in the world we live in. Therefore, let's embrace this season like never before and do some great things for the kingdom's sake. Have a great week!

Scripture for the month: <sup>23</sup> For the LORD your God dried up the river right before your eyes, and he kept it dry until you were all across, just as he did at the Red Sea when he dried it up until we had all crossed over. <sup>24</sup> He did this so all the nations of the earth might know that the LORD's hand is powerful, and so you might fear the LORD your God forever." # Morning Scripture

Isaiah 58:1-10 (NKJV)

<sup>1</sup> “Cry aloud, spare not; lift up your voice like a trumpet;
Tell My people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

<sup>2</sup> Yet they seek Me daily, and delight to know My ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and did not forsake the ordinance of their God.
They ask of Me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching God.

<sup>3</sup> ‘Why have we fasted,’ they say, ‘and You have not seen?
Why have we afflicted our souls, and You take no notice?’

“In fact, in the day of your fast you find pleasure,
And exploit all your laborers.

<sup>4</sup> Indeed you fast for strife and debate, and to strike with the fist of wickedness.
You will not fast as you do this day, to make your voice heard on high.

<sup>5</sup> Is it a fast that I have chosen, a day for a man to afflict his soul?
Is it to bow down his head like a bulrush, and to spread out sackcloth and ashes?
Would you call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

<sup>6</sup> “Is this not the fast that I have chosen: to loose the bonds of wickedness,
to undo the heavy burdens, to let the oppressed go free,
and that you break every yoke?”

<sup>7</sup> Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and that you bring to your house the poor who are cast out; when you see the naked, that you cover him, and not hide yourself from your own flesh?

<sup>8</sup> Then your light shall break forth like the morning, your healing shall spring forth speedily, and your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.

<sup>9</sup> Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry, and He will say, ‘Here I am.’

“If you take away the yoke from your midst, the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness,

<sup>10</sup> If you extend your soul to the hungry and satisfy the afflicted soul,
Then your light shall dawn in the darkness, and your darkness shall be as the noonday.

Psalm of Praise

Psalm 25:1-10

(R) Lead me, Lord, lead me in thy righteousness; make thy way plain before my face.

<sup>2</sup>O my God, in you I trust, let me not be put to shame; let not my enemies exult over me.

<sup>3</sup>Let none that wait for you be put to shame;
let them be ashamed who are clothed with treachery.

<sup>4</sup>Make me to know your ways, O LORD;
teach me your paths.

<sup>5</sup>Lead me in your truth, and teach me,
*for you are the God of my salvation;
for you I wait all the day long.*

(R) Lead me, Lord, lead me in thy righteousness; make thy way plain
before my face.

<sup>6</sup>Be mindful of your mercy, O LORD, and of your steadfast love,
for they have been from of old.

<sup>7</sup>*Remember not the sins of my youth, or my transgressions;
according to your steadfast love remember me,
for the sake of your goodness, O LORD.*

<sup>8</sup>Good and upright is the LORD;
therefore the LORD instructs sinners in the way,

<sup>9</sup>and leads the humble in what is right,
and teaches them their way.

<sup>10</sup>All the paths of the LORD are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep the LORD's covenant and testimonies.

(R) Lead me, Lord, lead me in thy righteousness; make thy way plain
before my face.

Five Things African Americans Need to Know About Prediabetes

This Black History Month, understand your health history and reshape your destiny, especially when it comes to prediabetes. As an African American, there are 5 things you should know.

1. Americans are at a higher risk for prediabetes than non-Hispanic whites, especially if type 2 diabetes runs in their family. Around 36% of African Americans have prediabetes, where blood sugar levels are higher than normal, but not high enough to be type 2 diabetes. Take your knowledge of high risk and kick type 2 diabetes out of the family tree now.

2. Learning if you're at risk for prediabetes is the first step toward a healthier destiny. Prediabetes risk increases if someone:

- Has a parent, brother, or sister with type 2 diabetes.
- Is 45 years old or older.
- Is overweight or is physically active fewer than 3 times per week.

3. Prediabetes is a serious condition that can lead to type 2 diabetes and other health problems. These could include heart disease, stroke, blindness, and kidney failure.

4. You can reverse prediabetes. Type 2 diabetes doesn't have to be a part of your future. You can reverse prediabetes with healthy lifestyle changes like eating healthier, getting more physical activity, and managing stress. Here are some things you can do now:

- Grab a friend and go for a brisk walk or jog.
- Put on some music and dance.
- Try a healthy twist on family recipes like grandma's classic sweet potato pie, momma's collard greens, or your favorite auntie's potato salad. You can also try choosing healthy foods at the buffet table at family events.

5. You can take action to prevent type 2 diabetes. The Southeast Diabetes Faith Initiative (SDFI) offers a lifestyle change program that can help you learn the skills you need to lose weight, become more physically active, and manage stress. Studies show that people with prediabetes who take part in the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's (CDC's) National Diabetes Prevention Program lifestyle change program can reduce their risk for type 2 diabetes by 50%.

Republican Senators Stand with Seditious, Not the Republic

by Rev. Jesse Jackson, Sr.

When asked what the Constitutional Convention had created, Benjamin Franklin replied, “A Republic if we can keep it.” On Saturday, February 13, 2021, by an unprecedented bipartisan vote of 57-43, the Senate voted to keep the Republic and convict Donald Trump of his seditious incitement of the sacking of the Capitol. Sadly, that vote did not meet the constitutional requirement of a two-third vote for conviction because 43 Republican senators chose to save their careers over saving the Republic. This was a profile in cowardice. Had there been a secret ballot, the vote to convict would likely have been overwhelming.

America, we say, is the land of the free and the home of the brave, but a vast majority of Republican senators reside in the land of fear and the home of the cowed. During the Civil War, the nation chose to save the Republic. Americans lost more lives than in any other war to defeat the Confederates, end their sedition and free the slaves. On Jan. 6, the new Confederates stormed the Capitol, some bearing the flags of the Confederacy, some bearing the flags of Trump who — intent on overturning an election that he lost badly — sold them the lie that the election had been stolen. Trump assembled the mob, targeted the mob, and set it on the Capitol to stop the certification of the election and the peaceful transfer of power.

These are the same senators who send the sons and daughters of working families across the world to risk their lives fighting against terrorists or fighting against regimes they do not like. Yet when the terrorists are home-grown and the would-be tyrant leads their own party, they choose not to stand up. They fear losing their seats more than losing the Republic itself. These conclusions are inescapable. The facts of Trump’s sedition are not in dispute. There is no explanation other than self-interest and cowardice to stand with Trump and the mob against the Republic and democratic elections.

America is now in a fierce struggle for the very survival of its democracy. A majority of Republican senators stood with the sedition. And now they embrace and defend a leader whose attack on the Constitution he was sworn to defend is an act of treachery without precedent in our history. Americans must now decide if they will continue to elect those who will not stand up for the Republic. They may rig the rules and tilt the playing field, but the decision will still be in our hands. Let us hope that with Ben Franklin and the Founders we decide to keep the Republic and continue to build a more perfect Union.

Little Known Black History Fact

Attorney Jewel Lafontant-Mankarious

by D.L. Chandler

Jewel Lafontant-Mankarious was a Chicago lawyer who achieved a number of firsts as a woman and African-American in her field. Among her achievements, Lafontant-Mankarious was the first Black woman to graduate from the University of Chicago Law School and was also the first Black Deputy Solicitor General.

Born Jewel Carter Stradford on April 28, 1922 in Chicago, Ill., her father, Francis Stradford, was reportedly the co-founder of the National Bar Association and a U.S. Supreme Court attorney. Lafontant-Mankarious, a graduate of Oberlin College, earned her J.D. Degree from the University of Chicago Law School in 1946.

Lafontant-Mankarious and her first husband, John Rogers Sr., opened a family law firm in Chicago and she also worked as an attorney for the Chicago Legal Aid Society. In 1955, she became the first Black woman to be named an assistant U.S. attorney Northern District of Illinois. In 1973, President Richard Nixon named Lafontant-Mankarious as Deputy Solicitor General.

Nixon considered Lafontant-Mankarious as a possible Supreme Court nominee, but he reportedly dropped the idea after author Sheldon Goodman said that Nixon was told by the American Bar Association that she was unqualified. Lafontant-Mankarious was a founding member of the Congress of Racial Equality and worked with the ACLU and the NAACP.

In 1961, she divorced Jones and married H. Ernest Lafontant, who died in 1976. She married Naguib Mankarious and remained married to him until her death in 1997 from breast cancer. She also continued practicing law up until that point, working as a partner for the Holleb & Coff firm.
