Being Somebody Above the Noise

Haggai 2:19-23

Never ignore what God can do through the ordinary.

Not by might, not by power, but by my Spirit says the Lord. Zechariah 4:6

Discover God's purposes in His world and be part of them.

Live life with a new sense of responsibility, not as those who don't know the meaning of life, but as those who do. Ephesians 5:15

God has a special spot for those that don't do a lot more than show up with faith.

"And I will make you like my signet ring, for I have chosen you," declares the Lord Almighty. Haggai 2:23

Talk it Over! For my thoughts and LifeGroup*

Have you ever felt like Bystander #2? (Not the star, pretty anonymous, not very skilled or talented, etc...) How was it?

Zerubbabel wasn't Ezra, or Nehemiah. Put yourself in Zerubbabel's place. How would you feel amidst the other strong leaders?

What was one of his greatest qualities?

Look up these passages: Haggai 1:12-14; 2:20-23; Ezra 4:2-3, 5:2; Zechariah 4:6, 9-10. What is God saying about Zerubbabel, and about 'showing up'?

Read 1 Corinthians 1:18-31. Why does God seem to work so well through the 'nobodies'?

Talk to each other about how they personally contribute to God's work in this world.

Take time to pray together.
