SUMMER YOUTH EVENTS

A GLIMPSE OF JOY - BETHANY DONHAM

Probably my favorite part about Summer is the Golden Hour. The time when the sun hangs heavy in the sky and makes everything seem to glow, casting long shadows and calling out the lightning bugs. The cicadas begin to emerge for the evening to sing us lullabies and remind us that we've put in a good days work. Time to rest, reflect and thank God for bringing us through it all.

It reminds me of my childhood when I could stay out and play in the dirt, ride my bike for hours and always seem to be travelling to far off lands in my mind while spinning only circles. I could be only a few houses down from my own and still feel like I was on the cusp of the biggest adventure. Only when I heard the sound of my mother's voice calling me in for a bath would I ever go home. CONTINUE READING...

MEN

GridIron is June 20-21 at Von Braun Center. Register HERE.

WB PRESCHOOL | BIRTH-K

Preschool has been blessed with growth and there is need to open a new room for Sunday mornings. Would you be willing to help for one hour/month? Text "Madison Preschool" to 256-242-5151 for more information. There are multiple families who are expecting babies in the next few months! We are looking for moms who feel led to love on these through notes of encouragement and being available to be there to meet their needs. Would you consider being a part of our Great Expectations Ministry? For more information, please email JAMIE.

WB KIDS | 1ST-5TH

VBS, June 14-18, 9am-noon for completed K-5th grade. REGISTER by June 6.

YOUR TITHES AND OFFERINGS AT WORK

The Willowbrook Disaster Relief heavy duty diesel truck broke down as the team arrived safely at home from helping with the tornadoes north of Birmingham. Even with discounts it cost $7608 to repair. Three deployments out of our local area. There were 19 local requests for help. Trimmed trees in the back parking lot at Huntsville Campus.

LINCOLN VILLAGE

We are working hard renovating affordable housing for single mothers and we could use skilled and unskilled laborers. Visit www.lincolnvillageministry.com and click Get Involve – then Volunteer. We have tasks and projects for every skill level – yard work, demolition, painting, cleaning and more skilled work as well.
