

CCC Bible Reading Plan

Read the New Testament in a Year

As a church community, one of our values is to seek continual growth in our relationship with God (“reaching up”). We do this by daily connecting with God through talking and listening. One of the greatest resources God has given us for hearing the words of God is through the Bible.

In order to hear God, we need to take the time to read and linger over Scripture. At the start of a brand new year, you are invited to utilize the reading plan below, which was developed by The Bible Project. This plan will take us through the entire New Testament in one year. The vision is that we will be reading through the same Scripture together and having conversations with one another which will fuel spiritual growth and breakthroughs for each of us.

GUIDING POINTS

Accessing the Plan. The plan is listed below if you’d like to print a hardcopy. It can also be accessed online <https://www.bible.com/reading-plans/13233> or through the YouVersion Bible App <https://www.bible.com/app>, where you can download your preferred translation. I recommend the New International Version (NIV).

Know the Background. The plan also includes video devotionals which introduce the background for each book of the Bible. This is valuable because the books of the Bible were written by different authors inspired by the Holy Spirit, for a particular audience at a particular time for a particular occasion. Understanding the context will help us understand the character of God as well as the enduring principles God wants to communicate with us today. When reading the Bible, it’s important to know the background. You can access these informative videos by clicking on this link: <https://bibleproject.com/explore/book-overviews/?type=new>. If you use the app, links to the videos are already incorporated for easy access.

Don’t Rush. Linger. One of the reasons we are focusing on the New Testament in a Year Plan is that the pace is slow enough that we can meditate and reflect on what God is communicating. Too often, our Bible reading is rushed or non-existent, and instead of allowing our souls time to steep in God’s words, we simply check it off a to-do list. This year, let’s commit to lingering over the Bible meditatively, prayerfully, and slowly, so that we can become transformed by the words of God.

Don't Read in Isolation. Be Communal. As you read this year, invite family and friends in our church and in the community beyond to join you. If you access the plan in the YouVersion Bible App, you can invite others into your reading plan and then track each other's progress and share insights. When we approach the Bible this way, it allows us to focus on another one of our values, which is to be increasingly relational with one another in community ("reaching in" and "reaching out").

Seek Transformation. As we sit daily with Scripture, meditating on every verse of the New Testament, our goal is not to be filled with knowledge of the Bible, but rather to be filled with the Spirit of Jesus. As we encounter the person of Jesus through the transforming study of his words, may our hearts become increasingly aware of his love. May his love heal us and free us, so that our desire would be to love him as deeply as he loves us and to follow his life-giving ways.

May this be a year of spiritual flourishing and breakthroughs!
